2. Monitoring and review

- 2.1. This policy is to be reviewed by June 2022 and agreed by the Governing Body

3. Why this information is collected

- 3.1. We process student information in order to “exercise the official authority vested in us” to deliver education to your child. Whilst the majority of student information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is provided to us on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with GDPR we will inform you when your consent is required, for example in respect of racial or ethnic origin, religion, or where we intend to use photographs or biometric finger prints.
- 3.2. We use the student data:
  - 3.2.1. to support student learning
  - 3.2.2. to monitor and report on student progress
  - 3.2.3. to provide appropriate pastoral care
  - 3.2.4. to assess the quality of our services
  - 3.2.5. to comply with the law regarding data sharing

4. The lawful basis on which we use this information

Why do we collect and use student information?

We collect and use student information under the principle of the Data Protection Act 2018 (DPA 2018, which incorporates the General Data Protection Regulations / GDPR) which states that data is used for “specified, explicit and legitimate purposes”. We use student data to:

- 4.1. support student learning;
- 4.2. monitor and report on student progress;
- 4.3. provide appropriate pastoral care;
- 4.4. assess the quality of our services; and
- 4.5. comply with the law regarding data sharing.

9. Why information is shared

- 9.1. We do not share information about our students with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.
- 9.2. We share students' data with the Department for Education (DfE) on a statutory basis. This data sharing underpins school funding and educational attainment policy and monitoring.
- 9.3. We are required to share information about our students with the (DfE) under regulation 5 of The Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

10. Data collection requirements

To find out more about the data collection requirements placed on us by the Department for Education (for example; via the school census) go to <https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>.

11. Youth support services

11.1. Students aged 13+

Once our students reach the age of 13, we also pass student information to our local authority and / or provider of youth support services as they have responsibilities in relation to the education or training of 13-19 year olds under section 507B of the Education Act 1996.

11.2. Students aged 16+

We will also share certain information about students aged 16+ with our local authority and / or provider of youth support services as they have responsibilities in relation to the education or training of 13-19 year olds under section 507B of the Education Act 1996.

This enables them to provide services as follows:

- post-16 education and training providers
- youth support services
- careers advisers

12. The National Pupil Database (NPD)

- 12.1. The NPD is owned and managed by the Department for Education and contains information about pupils in schools in England. It provides invaluable evidence on educational performance to inform independent research, as well as studies commissioned by the Department. It is held in electronic format for statistical purposes. This information is securely collected from a range of sources including schools, local authorities and awarding bodies.
- 12.2. We are required by law, to provide information about our pupils to the DfE as part of statutory data collections such as the school census and early years' census. Some of this information is then stored in the NPD. The law that allows this is the Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

To find out more about the NPD, go to <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/national-pupil-database-user-guide-and-supporting-information>.

Privacy Policy (Student Information)

The department may share information about our students from the NPD with third parties who promote the education or well-being of children in England by:

- 12.2.1. conducting research or analysis
  - 12.2.2. producing statistics
  - 12.2.3. providing information, advice or guidance
- 12.3. The Department has robust processes in place to ensure the confidentiality of our data is maintained and there are stringent controls in place regarding access and use of the data. Decisions on whether DfE releases data to third parties are subject to a strict approval process and based on a detailed assessment of:
- 12.3.1. who is requesting the data
  - 12.3.2. the purpose for which it is required
  - 12.3.3. the level and sensitivity of data requested; and
  - 12.3.4. the arrangements in place to store and handle the data
- 12.4. To be granted access to pupil information, organisations must comply with strict terms and conditions covering the confidentiality and handling of the data, security arrangements and retention and use of the data.
- 12.5. For more information about the department's data sharing process, please visit: <https://www.gov.uk/data-protection-how-we-collect-and-share-research-data>
- 12.6. For information about which organisations the department has provided pupil information, (and for which project), please visit the following website: <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/national-pupil-database-requests-received>
